Hi, Tom. The EPA administrative orders that I referred to when we spoke are attached. One of them (the DuPont order) was a consent order; the other two were unilateral orders (not settlements). All three involved PFOA contamination of drinking water. I pass these orders on to you purely as an FYI.

In our last phone conversation, you indicated a willingness to send me 1 or 2 Consent Orders which may have language which would be useful to my discussions with Saint-Gobain. If you are still willing to share these documents with me, I could use them at this time.

Thanks –
